VENEBOOM - veneboom.com

Last update indicated by Complianz: 2 May 2026. This policy applies to citizens and legal permanent residents of the European Economic Area and Switzerland.

Document prepared for publication as a PDF in the WordPress Media Library. It should be reviewed whenever the services, plugins or cookies installed on the website change.

1. Introduction

Our website, <https://venebloom.com> (hereinafter, the website), uses cookies and other related technologies. For ease of reading, all these technologies are referred to in this policy as cookies.

Cookies may also be placed by third parties that we have engaged or whose services we use on the website. In this document we inform you about the use of cookies on our website.

2. What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file that is sent together with the pages of a website and stored by the browser on the user's computer, phone or other device. The stored information may be returned to our servers or to third-party servers during a later visit.

3. What are scripts?

A script is a piece of program code used to make the website work properly and interactively. This code may run on our server or on the user's device.

4. What is a web beacon?

A web beacon, also called a pixel tag, is a small invisible piece of text or image on a website that is used to monitor traffic on a page. Certain data may be stored through these web beacons.

5. Types of cookies

Technical or functional cookies: some cookies ensure that certain parts of the website work correctly and that user preferences can be remembered. By placing functional cookies, we make it easier to visit our website. We may place this type of cookie without consent when it is strictly necessary to provide the service requested.

Marketing or tracking cookies: cookies, or any other form of local storage, used to create user profiles, display advertising or track the user on this website or across several websites for similar marketing purposes.

7. Consent

When you visit our website for the first time, we will display a pop-up window with an explanation about cookies. By clicking "Save preferences", you agree that we may use the categories of cookies and services that you selected in the pop-up window, as described in this policy.

You can disable the use of cookies in your browser. Please note that the website may not work properly if all cookies are disabled.

8. Enabling, disabling and deleting cookies

You can use your internet browser to delete cookies automatically or manually. You can also configure the browser so that certain cookies cannot be placed or so that you receive a warning each time a cookie is placed.

If you delete cookies from your browser, they may be placed again after you provide consent when you revisit the website.

9. Your rights with respect to personal data

You have the right to know why your personal data is needed, what will happen to it and how long it will be retained.

- You have the right of access to the personal data that we may know about you.
- You have the right to rectification, erasure or restriction of processing where applicable.
- If you have given us your consent to process your data, you have the right to withdraw that consent.
- You have the right to data portability where applicable.
- You have the right to object to processing, unless there are overriding legitimate grounds.
- To exercise these rights, you may contact us using the details indicated in this policy. If you have a complaint about how we handle your data, you also have the right to contact the competent data protection authority.
